GATHBANDHAN IN UP UNRAVELS

BSP, SP will fight Assembly bypolls separately

THE SP-BSP POLL alliance in UP unravelled on Tuesday, with BSP president Mayawati confirming that her party would fight the Assembly bypolls this year on its own, and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav responding that his party would take the same route.

In a statement issued a day after she met party leaders, Mayawati also blamed the SP's core vote base — the "Yadav samaj" — for the poll debacle and said that it "drifted away" from the alliance, even in the SP strongholds. Mayawati, however, kept the window open for the alliance and emphasised that her latest move did not signal a "permanent break" with the SP. Also, she did not directly criticise Akhilesh and said she received "a lot of respect" from the SP chief and his wife Dimple Yadav. She said she can work with the SP in future if Akhilesh fulfills "his political duties".

Reacting to Mayawati's statement, Akhilesh told reporters in Ghazipur: "Even if our paths are different, we welcome it. If the alliance ends, we will field SP candidates on all 11 seats up for the bypolls after consulting our party leaders."

Sources in both parties told The Indian Express that Akhilesh and Mayawati have not held any formal discussion over the results after the defeat in the Lok Sabha elections — the BSP won 10 seats and the SP five.

Mayawati's statement comes a day after she told BSP leaders in a closed-door meeting that the future of the alliance would be reviewed. In Tuesday's statement, the BSP chief said that after the alliance was finalised, Akhilesh and Dimple gave her a lot of respect and she too forgot "all past differences" and "gave them respect like a family". Mayawati said she will try to ensure that their "relationship stays intact".

"But on the other side, political compulsions cannot be ignored completely... after see-

BSP president Mayawati, however, kept the window open for the alliance and emphasised that her latest move did not signal a 'permanent break' with the Samajwadi Party

ing the results of the Lok Sabha polls in UP, it has to be said with much sadness that SP's base

vote — the Yadav samaj — could not remain with the SP in Yadavdominated constituencies and betrayed (the alliance) because of some unknown displeasure and defeated SP's prominent candidates," Mayawati said.

She said the defeat of Dimple in Kannauj, Akhilesh's cousin Dharmendra Yadav in Badaun and SPleader Ramgopal Yadav's son Akshay in Firozabad forced her to "think a lot". "It can be analysed in this situation that when the SP's vote base drifted away in SP's strong seats, how could they have voted for the BSP?"she said.

Mayawati said her party's review found that the BSP could not succeed as expected in alliance with the SP and that there is a need for improvement in the poll partner. In the statement, she said that the SP, too,

"lost a good opportunity to rid the society of BIP".

"But now, they (SP) have to prepare a lot in the coming days. And if I feel in future that the SP chief (Akhilesh) has achieved success in fulfilling his political duties... we will certainly work together again. That means there is no breakup between us so far. And if he doesn't succeed because of any reason, it'll be better for us to work separately. Hence, in the current situation, we have decided to fight the byelections alone," Mayawati said.

The bypolls are to be held in 11 Assembly seats after eight MLAs of the BJP and one each of Apna Dal (S), SP and BSP were elected to the Lok Sabha.

Speaking in Ghazipur, Akhilesh said: "If the gathbandhan has disintegrated, or whatever is being said about it, I will deliberate on it very carefully. And if there is no alliance in the bypolls, SP will make its own preparations. The SP will also contest from all the 11 seats after consulting with senior members of the party.... Even if our paths are different, it is welcome. and best wishes to everyone." The BJP, meanwhile, posted on its official Twitter handle a video clip from Prime Minister Narendra Modi's election rally in Etah where he had said that SP-BSP's "fake friendship" will break on May 23, the day of the results.

LS polls defeat: Congress fight goes public with Gehlot blaming Pilot

DEEP MUKHERJEE Jaipur, June 4

SIGNALLING THE WIDEN-ING rift in the Rajasthan Congress, chief minister Ashok Gehlot has said deputy CM and state Congress president Sachin Pilot should take responsibility for his son Vaibhav Gehlot's defeat from the Jodhpur seat in the Lok Sabha polls.

In an interview to ABP News, Gehlot said: "...Pilot sahab ne kaha kuch din pehle bhi ki bahut bhaari bahumat se seat jitegi Jodhpur ki. Hamare wahan par che MLA hai, shandarcampaign hamne kiya hai to mai samajhta hoon ki kam se kam us seat ki zimmedari toh woh lein...ki Jodhpur ki seat jo hai, uska pura post-mortem hona chahiye ki kyon nahi jite ham log."

"(...Pilot had said a few days ago as well that we would win the Jodhpur seat with a handsome margin, that we have six MLAs there and that we had run a great campaign, so I think that at least he (Pilot) should take the responsibility of this seat...on the Jodhpur seat, its post-mortem should be done on why we didn't win)."

it is the chief minister or the state party chief, the Con-

Gehlot also said whether

Chief minister Ashok Gehlot has said deputy CM and state Congress president Sachin Pilot should take responsibility for his son Vaibhav Gehlot's defeat from the Jodhpur seat

gress had to take collective responsibility for losing all 25 Lok Sabha seats in the state to the BIP. Vaibhav lost to Union Minister and BJP leader Gajendra Singh Shekhawat by a margin of 2.74 lakh votes.

When contacted, Pilot expressed his surprise over Gehlot's statement but did not offer further comment. After controversy erupted, Gehlot posted a clip of his interview on Twitter and wrote, "This was my reply to some questions during the interview...Some sections of the media are making an unnecessary issue out of the context."

Sources in the Congress said that Gehlot's comments are part of the ever-widening rift within the party in Rajasthan. Incidentally, after the LS election defeat, two Rajasthan ministers had targeted Gehlot, and demanded "introspection" and "accountability" for the setback.

In an indication of the divide, several MLAs The Indian Express spoke to appeared divided on laying the blame for the poll debacle.

Congress MLA from Bandikui Gajraj Khatana told The Indian Express, "I feel that Jodhpur has been the home and workplace of Ashok Gehlot ji. I don't think that Sachin Pilot ji should take responsibility for the defeat. In natural course it would appear that when the seat in question is Jodhpur and that too his son is being fielded, what can somebody else do anything in this,"

A section of MLAs also supported Gehlot and said that they agree with his statement."I think what the Chief Minister has said is right and he must have said it after due thinking. In case of a defeat, everyone should take responsibility of the party's defeat," said Rajasthan Minister for Minority Affairs Saleh Mohammed, an MLA from Pokaran under the Jodhpur Lok Sabha seat.

The result in the Jodhpur seat was in sharp contrast to that of the Assembly elections in December last year, when the Congress won 7 out of 10 seats. Gehlot has also been an MLA from Sardarpura in Jodhpur since 1998 and during the Lok Sabha elections, Vaibhav lost from this assembly segment as well by a margin of almost 19,000 votes.

BSP, SP will fight Assembly bypolls separately

THE SP-BSP POLL alliance in UPunravelled on Tuesday, with BSP president Mayawati confirming that her party would fight the Assembly bypolls this year on its own, and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav responding that his party would take the same route.

In a statement issued a day after she met party leaders, Mayawati also blamed the SP's core vote base — the "Yadav samaj" — for the poll debacle and said that it 11 seats up for the bypolls after "drifted away" from the consulting our party leaders." alliance, even in the SP strongholds. Mayawati, however, kept the window open for the alliance and emphasised that her latest move did not signal a "permanent break" with the SP. Also, she did not directly criticise Akhilesh and said she received "a lot of respect" from the SP chief and his wife Dimple Yadav. She said she can work with the SP in future if Akhilesh fulfills "his political duties".

Reacting to Mayawati's statement, Akhilesh told reporters in Ghazipur: "Even if our paths are different, we welcome it. If the alliance ends, we will field SP candidates on all Sources in both parties told The Indian Express that Akhilesh and Mayawati have not held any formal discussion over the results after the defeat in the Lok Sabha elections — the BSP won 10 seats and the SP five.

In Tuesday's statement, the BSP chief said that after the alliance was finalised, Akhilesh and Dimple gave her a lot of respect and she too forgot "all past differences" and "gave them respect like a family". Mayawati said she will try to ensure that their "relationship stays intact".

"But on the other side, political compulsions cannot be ignored completely... after see-

BSP president Mayawati, however, kept the window open for the alliance and emphasised that her latest move did not signal a 'permanent break' with the Samajwadi Party

ing the results of the Lok Sabha polls in UP, it has to be said with much sadness that SP's base

vote — the Yadav samaj — could not remain with the SP in Yadavdominated constituencies and

betrayed (the alliance) because of some unknown displeasure and defeated SP's prominent candidates," Mayawati said.

She said the defeat of Dimple in Kannauj, Akhilesh's cousin Dharmendra Yadav in Badaun and SPleader Ramgopal Yadav's son Akshay in Firozabad forced her to "think a lot". "It can be analysed in this situation that when the SP's vote base drifted away in SP's strong seats, how could they have voted for the BSP?"she said.

Mayawati said her party's review found that the BSP could not succeed as expected in alliance with the SP and that there is a need for improvement in the poll partner. In the statement, she said that the SP, too,

"lost a good opportunity to rid the society of BJP".

"But now, they (SP) have to prepare a lot in the coming days. And if I feel in future that the SP chief (Akhilesh) has achieved success in fulfilling his political duties... we will certainly work together again. That means there is no breakup between us so far. And if he doesn't succeed because of any reason, it'll be better for us to work separately. Hence, in the current situation, we have decided to fight the byelections alone," Mayawati said.

The bypolls are to be held in 11 Assembly seats after eight MLAs of the BJP and one each of Apna Dal (S), SP and BSP were elected to the Lok Sabha.

Speaking in Ghazipur, Akhilesh said: "If the gathbandhan has disintegrated, or whatever is being said about it, I will deliberate on it very carefully. And if there is no alliance in the bypolls, SP will make its own preparations. The SP will also contest from all the 11 seats after consulting with senior members of the party.... Even if our paths are different, it is welcome, and best wishes to everyone."

The BJP, meanwhile, posted on its official Twitter handle a video clip from Prime Minister Narendra Modi's election rally in Etah where he had said that SP-BSP's "fake friendship" will break on May 23, the day of the results.

LS polls defeat: Congress fight goes public with Gehlot blaming Pilot

DEEP MUKHERJEE

Jaipur, June 4

SIGNALLING THE WIDEN-ING rift in the Rajasthan Congress, chief minister Ashok Gehlot has said deputy CM and state Congress president Sachin Pilot should take responsibility for his son Vaibhav Gehlot's defeat from the Jodhpur seat in the Lok Sabha polls.

In an interview to ABP News, Gehlot said: "...Pilot sahab ne kaha kuch din pehle bhi ki bahut bhaari bahumat se seat jitegi Jodhpur ki. Hamare wahan par che MLA hai, shandar campaign hamne kiya hai to mai samajhta hoon ki kam se kam us seat ki zimmedari toh woh lein...ki Jodhpur ki seat jo hai, uska pura post-mortem hona chahiye ki kyon nahi jite ham log."

"(...Pilot had said a few days ago as well that we would win the Jodhpur seat with a handsome margin, that we have six MLAs there and that we had run a great campaign, so I think that at least he (Pilot) should take the responsibility of this seat...on the Jodhpur seat, its post-mortem should be done on why we didn't win)."

Gehlot also said whether it is the chief minister or the state party chief, the Con-

Congress MLA from Bandikui Gajraj Khatana told The Indian Express, "I feel that Jodhpur has been the home and workplace of Ashok Gehlot ji. I don't think that Sachin Pilot ji should take responsibility for the defeat. In natural course it would appear that when the seat in question is Jodhpur and that too his son is being fielded, what can somebody else do anything in this,"

A section of MLAs also supported Gehlot and said that they agree with his statement."I think what the Chief Minister has said is right and he must have said it after due thinking. In case of a defeat, everyone should take responsibility of the party's defeat," said Rajasthan Minister for Minority Affairs Saleh Mohammed, an MLA from Pokaran under the Jodhpur Lok Sabha seat.

The result in the Jodhpur seat was in sharp contrast to that of the Assembly elections in December last year, when the Congress won 7 out of 10 seats. Gehlot has also been an MLA from Sardarpura in Jodhpur since In an indication of the 1998 and during the Lok Sabha elections, Vaibhav lost from this assembly segment as well by a margin of almost 19,000 votes.
